[1] Please be informed that laptop computers will not be permitted in Administrative Law. Should you need special accommodation please contact the University Office of Disability Services before classes start.

[2] ATA: Civil will be available for waitlisting on the web. All interested students should place themselves on the waitlist, and enrollment priority will be given to those students, in waitlist order, who have not taken any other ATA course.

[3] Improvisation for Lawyers will meet for only 4 weeks. Section 501 will meet Nov. 17 through Dec. 8, and Section 502 will meet from Dec. 15 through Jan. 19.

[4] Enterprise Tax will have the following meeting schedule: Nov. 20; all Wednesday, Thursday, and Friday meetings in December; Friday meetings in January; no meetings in February.

[5] Students registering for Intro to Trial Advocacy must enroll in the Lecture and one Practice section. Students must email Prof. Stern (grs29@drexel.edu) to be enrolled in ITA. Prof. Stern will send an email detailing this process.

[6] The Supreme Court Seminar includes overnight stays in Washington DC; all expenses for that trip are the student's responsibility.

[7] Constitutional Law II is strongly recommended as a pre-requisite or co-requisite for Comparative Constitutional Law. Students who have not taken Constitutional Law II should speak to the instructor before registering for the course.

Important Note: Several days have been legislated in the Winter Quarter: Wednesday, Dec. 23 will follow a Friday schedule; Tuesday, Feb. 2 will follow a Thursday schedule; and Monday, Feb. 8 will follow a Wednesday schedule.
